Birmingham- From December 26- January 10, folks can drop off clean trees at The Birmingham Zoo

Cullman- Drop off your trees in front of the Aquaculture Center of Gadsden State Community College. The tree branches will be dropped into the school's ponds to encourage the spawning of yellow perch. The college is located on Wallace Drive in Gadsden.

Dothan- There will be a drop off for bare trees at the Water and Electric Plant at 200 Kilgore Drive starting December 26. Public will have open access 24/7, so there is no set time for drop off.

Enterprise- Residents can put bare trees on their curbsides during normal waste pick-up day and the city will dispose of them accordingly.

Gardendale- Old Christmas trees are picked up curbside and are chipped by the city as part of their normal landscaping and yard debris removal service. Mulch generated goes to Gardendale city landscaping.

Homewood- The Homewood Public Library provides drop-off locations for clean trees from December 26- January 18 any time. Visit <http://www.homewoodal.net/recycle-christmas.html> for further information

Huntsville- The Huntsville Botanical Gardens does not have their mulch program anymore so they can no longer recycle bare trees. (Verbatim from the County extension number (256) 532-1578.... "No one in Huntsville provides Christmas tree recycling. Contact your garbage provider to see if you can put it on your curbside.")

Mobile- For residents interested in recycling bare trees, email peter.toler@cityofmobile.org to gather more information.

Montgomery- Montgomery Clean City Commission says that folks can drop off at any of their drop off locations on Dec 30 and Jan 6 from 9am to 3pm

Prattville- Residents can put natural trees on their curbside during normal Residential Yard Trash collection day and the Sanitation Department will collect it for recycling.

Shelby County- Trees can be dropped off at any of the locations below from Dec. 27-Jan. 4

- Heardmont Park on Cahaba Valley Road on U.S. 119
- Chelsea City Hall
- Ray Building on Highway 70 in Columbiana
- AmStar Theatre at the Alabaster Colonnade
- Pelham City Park, at the U.S. 31/ 119 entrance

Tuscaloosa- The city will be accepting bare trees, garland, and live wreaths from December 26- January 14 for their annual Tree Recycling Program. The mulch from trees are used for landscaping projects around town or erosion projects around waterways.

Vestavia- Residents can put bare trees alongside yard waste and the city will dispose of it accordingly. (The Boy Scouts are not recycling Christmas trees this year at Scout Square, because Alabama Power is unable to pick them up this year.)
